Opinion

Dr. Alizaman Gamon

The IIIT Philippines had actively participated in the weekly meeting of Ranao Council Incorporated and its Halaqah program that had resulted in the publication of the official magazine of the Ranao Council. Our brothers and sisters from the Council have been strong supporters of the agenda of Islamization and integration of knowledge in the Philippines. The contents of the magazine clearly define the new orientation of the writers for giving prominence towards a holistic understanding of socio-economic and religious realities.

The IIIT Philippines has been given the task to supervise the translation of ten (10) IIIT Book-in-Brief and the translation of two (2) IIIT Books: (1) The The Qur'anic Worldview: A Springboard for Cultural Reform, By Abdul Hamid Abu Sulayman, (2) Crisis in the Muslim Mind, By Abdul Hamid Abu Sulayman). The assigned translators are academic staff of the University of the Philippines Institute of Islamic Studies (UP IIS), Diliman, under the supervision of Prof. Macrina Morados, the Dean of the Institute. ❖
