THE EDINBURGH OLD TOWN

Capturing the Lines of Heritage

The Edinburgh Old Town: Capturing the Lines of Heritage is a pictorial narrative that tells the experience of a Malaysian who resided in Edinburgh from 2000 until 2002. This book takes the reader to the streets and settings of the Old Town through 500 hand-drawn sketches. Much of the architectural settings have been well-conserved until today and integrated with the more recent development throughout the years. The sketches in this book captured the lines of the heritage of the Edinburgh Old Town, evoked by the detailed visuals of the townscape sceneries.
