NATIONAL MEDIATION CONFERENCE 3-6 JULY 2023

Theme: Community-focused mediation, and other community-focused processes

Interreligious Mediation in Malaysia:
The Needs, Requirements, Challenges and the Way
Forward

Haslina Ibrahim Assoc. Prof. Dr. Department of Usul al-Din & Comparative Religion, AHAS KIRKHS

INTRODUCTION

The challenging pluralistic world

The challenging pluralistic world we live today; the speed of technology bring people across the globe into proximity; hence plurality, coexistence and engagement

The loopholes

Loopholes on risk management and damage control dealing with religious differences

The objective

To promote the dynamic and pro-active role of mediation in conflict resolution; going beyond the reactionary approach of interreligious dialogue

Findings of survey with community in Kg. Sg. Chinchin, Gombak

19 community members, in depth interview method.

- Unaware of religious disputes
- Care less
- Take for granted
- Police affairs/ leave to authorities
- Lack of communication with people of different races and religions
- Not important to get in touch
- Communication barrier; hamper interreligious relationship
- Types of conflict; aggressive behavior during festival
- No idea at all on mediation

THE NEEDS: ISSUES FACED BY THE MALAYSIAN COMMUNITIES

- Racial issues & prejudices
- Religious sensitivities
- Poverty and delinquency
- Neighbourhood issues/disputes

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

- 1. Policies
- 2. Political will
- 3. Commitment from government agencies, NGOs
- 4. Involvement from grassroot
- 5. Training modules
- 6. Funding
- 7. Incentive
- 8. Database
- 9. Centralised body

WHAT ARE THE CHALLENGES?

- 1. Awareness
- 2. National priority
- 3. Participation from the grassroot
- 4. Professionalism and credibility
- 5. Level of education
- 6. Skill and knowledge
 - 7. Trust
- 8. Sensitivity

THE WAY FORWARD

1 Empowering community leaders

Community leaders need more skills to empower them — university community engagement project

2 Credible mediator

Malaysia needs to train more credible mediator at the grassroot level to realize unity and integration

Structured management of mediation

It is timely to establish a center under the Ministry to manage the mediation affairs.

CONVOCATION
