Subject: Invitation to Keynote Address at the International Seminar on Government and Civilization

Dear Associate Professor Dr. Mehmet Özey,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. I am writing to extend a formal invitation to you to serve as a keynote speaker at the upcoming International Seminar on Government and Civilization, a collaborative effort between Ibn Haldun University in Istanbul, Turkey, and Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM).

The seminar, themed "Malaysian-Turkish Politics and Civilization: Exploring New Perspectives," aims to foster international dialogue and explore fresh insights into the intricate dynamics of politics, culture, and society beyond geographical and cultural confines. Your expertise and insights would be invaluable to our attendees, who are eager to gain knowledge and perspective from distinguished experts in the field.

We have identified you as a prominent figure in your area of expertise, and your contributions to academia and your field are highly regarded. Your presence as a keynote speaker would greatly enhance the quality and impact of our event.

The seminar is scheduled to take place on October 21, 2023, and your keynote address would be at 10:30 am Turkish timing. Your participation will be a cornerstone in making this seminar a memorable and fruitful experience for all involved. We genuinely hope that you can join us for this event.

Please confirm your availability at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for considering this invitation, and we look forward to the possibility of having you as a keynote speaker at our seminar.

Sincerely,

Enes Yalman
Director, ISOGOC IV
