Assalamualaikum wbt and Welcome to the 3rd IIUM International Conference of Nursing!

Kulliyyah of Nursing, International Islamic University Malaysia extends a heartfelt welcome to all the distinguished attendees, distinguished guests, dedicated nurses, and healthcare professionals gathered here today. The 3rd IIUM International Conference of Nursing, held in conjunction with the 40th Anniversary of the IIUM, provides a platform for us to come together as a community, exchange knowledge, foster collaboration, and shape the future of nursing.

As a profession, nursing has a special place in the hearts and minds of people all over the world. Nurses are compassionate caregivers who bridge the gap between patients and the healthcare system, offering vital support, comfort, and expertise to those in need. Nurses are the backbone of healthcare because of their tireless dedication, unwavering commitment, and profound impact on the lives of countless individuals.

Meanwhile, in today's rapidly changing healthcare landscape, nurses face a plethora of challenges and opportunities. Technological advancements, shifting demographics, and emerging health threats necessitate constant adaptation, innovation, and knowledge expansion. This conference will address these critical issues by bringing together a diverse group of experts, researchers, educators, and practitioners to share insights, discuss best practices, and investigate cutting-edge advancements in nursing care.

I imagine that this conference provides attendees with a unique opportunity to engage in thought-provoking discussions, gain new perspectives, and explore innovative approaches that will shape the future of nursing. Engaging keynote presentations, free paper presentations, and enlightening panel discussions may make a lasting impact in your respective fields. My heartfelt appreciation also goes to all of the speakers, presenters, and volunteers who generously shared their knowledge, time, and energy to help make this conference a reality. Your dedication to advancing nursing excellence is admirable, and we are grateful for your contributions.

Lastly, my heartfelt gratitude to our sponsors and partners, whose unwavering support has made this event possible. Your commitment to the advancement of the nursing profession and the improvement of patient outcomes is truly inspiring. I encourage all attendees to engage in meaningful conversations, make new connections, and take advantage of the wealth of knowledge and experiences available at this conference. Let us explore the transformative power of nursing together, inspire one another, and build a better future for healthcare. Thank you and enjoy the conference!
