This edition seeks to include new development in the law but keeps the simple and straightforward approach adopted since the first edition. The main audience of the book is the law students – which is why the contents have been arranged in such a way that they would be able to grasp the essence of the Constitution. At the same time the authors also have the judges and lawyers who need to quickly identify the issues in every constitutional problem. The book – apart from being reasonably priced – is a two in one: the provisions of the Constitution and the materials needed to explain them. These are some of the reasons that make the book a must for every law student and practitioner and indeed everyone interested in the Federal Constitution of Malaysia.

DR ABDUL AZIZ BARI is professor of law at the International Islamic University Malaysia where he has been teaching law for the past 20 years. He has written extensively on public law; esp. constitutional law. Two of his eight books – Malaysian Constitution: A Critical Introduction (2005) and Perlembagaan Malaysia: Ans dan Maslah (2001) – have been reprinted several times. He has also published chapters and journal articles on the subject and has presented some 130 papers here and abroad. A leading constitutionalist, he also writes newspaper columns and takes part in public advocacy.

DR FARID SUFIAN SHUAIB is an Assistant Professor at the Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), where he lectures Constitutional law and Malaysian Legal System. He has published articles and presented papers on legal pluralism, Syariah courts, constitutional law and media law. His other books include Powers and Jurisdiction of Syariah Courts in Malaysia (2008) which is in the second edition and Administration of Islamic Law in Malaysia: Text and Material (2001).
