

Powers and Jurisdiction of Syariah Courts in Malaysia 2nd Ed examines the position of Islam and Syariah courts in the context of the Malaysian Constitution and legal system.

Legal practitioners and law undergraduates will find this book useful as it not only addresses issues on legal pluralism and freedom of religion, but also provides in-depth and comprehensive discussion on the legal provisions and case law which will enable the readers to appreciate the intricacies of the problems faced by Syariah courts.

This book also provides a historical overview of the powers and jurisdiction of Syariah courts in Malaysia and deals with the constitutional and jurisdictional issues that are faced by both the civil and Syariah courts.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Farid Sufian Shuaib is an Assistant Professor at the Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), where he lectures Constitutional Law and Malaysian Legal System. He received his legal education in Malaysia and England.

The author has published articles and presented papers on legal pluralism, Syariah courts, constitutional law and media law, locally and internationally.

His other books include Administration of Islamic Law in Malaysia: Text and Material (2001), Constitution of Malaysia: Text and Commentary (2006) and Sumber Undang-Undang Malaysia (2007).

Powers and Jurisdiction of Syariah Courts in Malaysia 2nd Edition
Farid Sufian Shuaib

