CHAPTER 6

AN INTRODUCTION TO TRANSPORTATION LEGISLATIONS IN MALAYSIA

by

Syahriah Bachok¹

ABSTRACT

This chapter outlines the various laws and regulations pertinent to the transportation industry in Malaysia. Legislations, rules and regulations governing the four main transportation modes in Malaysia, namely road, rail, water and air, are introduced. Selected law provisions will be discussed in relation to their respective relevance to each mode. The chapter also provides a brief account of transportation concepts, problems and issues predominantly challenging the transportation industry. It concludes with questions raised regarding the proficiency and adequacy of the selected legislations in ameliorating these issues and problems.

Keywords: transportation, legislation, Malaysia, modes, issues.
