ABSTRACT

This chapter presents on Bosnia travel channel. The purpose of this report is to introduce to the problem and solutions as well as to provide the baseline and guidance to us so that we can follow the plan throughout the system development. In literature review section, some web sites that are similar to our project are compared, the different approaches to solve the same problem as well as the description of similar relevant projects going on.

15.1 Introduction

In Problem Description, the problem and potential benefits of the solution are introduced, as well as the brief background of Bosnia as the main subject of the problem and the description of the problem that exists. This will provide the justification for the system and why is it important that we proceed with this project.

In literature review section, some web sites that are similar to our project are compared, the different approaches to solve the same problem as well as the description of similar relevant projects going on.

The Project Definition explains the project objectives and the scope of the project as well as the methodologies used. This section covers the software and hardware required for the system development.

The goal of Project Design is to define the means of implementing the project solution without actually having implemented it. Here, it is ensured that the design fulfills the functional requirements
