PREFACE

TO THE SECOND EDITION

The purpose of this book is to provide the students of international law with a convenient collection of the texts that are essential to the study of the subject. The basic documents have been carefully selected and edited in order that they are in conformity with the course outlines of Public International Law I (LAW 4610) and Public International Law II (LAW 4611). In this second edition, the book has been completely revised and updated with recent conventions and recent Malaysian statutes.

There is always a need for such a collection of basic texts which would provide an aid, complementary to existing course books. This book can very well be used as a companion to "Public International Law: A Practical Approach" (Pearson, Prentice Hall, 2nd ed., 2007), a publication of the present editor.

I would like to take this opportunity to gratefully acknowledge the help and assistance provided by the Director and Staff of the Law Centre, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia.
