Re: The 5th CILS International Law Conference on International Cooperation 2014

Dear Sir,

Center for International Law Studies (CILS) Faculty of Law Universitas Indonesia will hold The 5th CILS International Law Conference on "International Cooperation" as a forum for international law stakeholders to get together in a harmonious spirit on international law development. This event will be held on 27th and 28th October 2014 at Faculty of Law, Universitas Indonesia, Depok, Indonesia.

This conference will be divided into plenary and group session. The theme of this year is "International Cooperation" which is carefully chosen among other themes to picture the sensitive and strategic issues of cooperation among States and between States and other subjects of international law. Within this broad conference theme, there are four parallel sessions in which will focus on the following sub-themes: (1) Political Cooperation; (2) Economic Cooperation; (3) Social and Cultural Cooperation; and (4) General Topic. Meanwhile, the Plenary Session remains in basic issue of International Cooperation.

This conference is open for the academicians all over the world, as well as researchers, NGOs, international organizations and Government Officers. We expect this forum to be a meeting point for all international law stakeholders, not only legal scholars but also other experts including environmentalists, human rights promoters, economists and other technical officers both government officers or private sectors, to share views on every aspects related to international law.

In conjunction to that, we would like to kindly request you to be Main Speaker on the Panel Session of this conference. We leave out the presentation title to your kind judgment to mirror the issue of International Cooperation nowadays based on your expertise and experience. For your kind information, as this event is a non-profit academic activity, we could not bear any related expense.
