Modeling data financing behavior of Nusabaya SMEs
(Conference Paper)

Authors:
[Authors' names]

Institute:
[Institution name]

Abstract:
The study models the data financing behavior of Nusabaya SMEs to determine the influence of various factors on data financing. The data is obtained from a survey conducted among SMEs in the Nusabaya region. The model considers factors such as the size of the business, the availability of financing options, and the perception of potential returns. The results indicate that SMEs with a higher perception of potential returns are more likely to engage in data financing.

Keywords:
[Keywords]

Additional information:
The study is published in the 2nd International Conference on Technology Management and Emerging Technologies.

References:
[References list]

Citing by Documents:
[List of citing documents]