

7.3 Exposure of the Programme to Current General Knowledge and Development

Of the 4092 respondents 92.8% (n=3799) agreed that the courses they studied at IIUM adequately exposed them to current general knowledge and development. Only 7.2% were in view that the programmes did not adequately expose them to current general knowledge and development (Table 7.3).

Table 7.3: Graduates' Exposure of the Programme to Current General Knowledge and Developmental (Class of 2014)

Exposure of the Programme	Frequency	Total Percentage
Yes	3799	92.8
No	293	7.2
Overall	4092	100.0

7.4 Teaching and Learning System-Exam Oriented

Table 7.4 indicates that 81.3% (n=3342) of IIUM graduates perceived that teaching and learning system of IIUM was exam-oriented. However, about 771 out of 3853 graduates had the opposite perception (18.7%).

Table 7.4: Teaching and Learning System-Exam Oriented (Class of 2014)

Teaching and Learning System (Exam-Oriented)	Frequency	Total Percentage
Yes	3342	81.3
No	771	18.7
Overall	4113	100.0

7.5 Evaluation System-Exam Oriented

Similar to the finding above, it is found that 81.0% (n=3319) of IIUM graduates perceived that the evaluation system of IIUM was exam-oriented.

Table 7.5: Evaluation System (Exam-Oriented) (Class of 2014)

Evaluation System (Exam-Oriented)	Frequency	Total Percentage
Yes
No	777	19.0
Overall	4096	100.0