The Law of Wills and Intestacy

IN MALAYSIA

SECOND EDITION

This book is designed to cater for the needs of the law students and may also be useful to anyone who is interested to know the legal aspect of testamentary disposition and distribution of estates on death for non-Muslims in Malaysia. It covers aspects of law on wills and intestacy as applied in West Malaysia. The main discussion in this book focuses on the requirements for a valid will and also of the law on intestacy in cases where a person dies without leaving a valid will. The aspect of estate administration has also been discussed in order to highlight on the importance of the procedural law.
