

A Handbook of Malaysian
Cases: Contemporary Issues
in Marketing & Management

Editors:

Farzana Quoquab
Jihad Mohammad
Maizaitulaidawati Md Husin
Arif Hassan

Contents

About the Editors.....	vii
Preface	ix
Value of This Book	xiii
Acknowledgement.....	xv
Leading Talents at ZKHM: When Pay and Benefits Matter!.....	1
On The Cross-Road of Career and Wellbeing.....	9
Amethyst: From New York to Kuala Lumpur.....	15
When CEO Allegedly Misconducts: A Case of Vierna Vesta Limited.....	27
Project Delays in Merdaz Goil: Who Gets the Blame?	35
Rainstah: When Turnover is High, Who's at Fault?	42
Sales Challenge of Orix: How to Deal With It?.....	52
The Fekshtra Welding Solutions' Ethical Dilemma	64
Oil Pilferage in Fimani Sdn Bhd: In Search of an Acceptable Solution.....	73
Buana Island Shipyard Sdn Bhd ("BIS"): It is Time for a Strategic Move ...	83
Sweet Temptation – A Chunky Bite Story	100
Case Synopsis.....	109
Contributors.....	117

About the Editors

Dr. Farzana Quoquab is a senior lecturer at International Business School, UTM. She has received her Doctorate degree from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. She has presented papers at various international and national conferences and published articles in peer-reviewed international journals such as Asian Case Research Journal, Emerald Emerging Markets Case Studies, Asia Pacific Journal of Marketing and Logistics, International Journal of Economics and Management, International Review of Management and Marketing, Pertanika Journal of Social Sciences & Humanities, International Journal of Business Governance and Ethics, Asian Academy of Management Journal and Journal of Islamic Marketing. She is one of the editorial board members of 'Case Studies in Business and Management' and 'Journal of Economic and Administrative Science'. Her current research interest includes Consumer Behavior, Services Marketing, Green & Sustainability Marketing, Social Marketing, Macro Marketing, and Work Ethics & Values.

Dr. Jihad Mohammad is a senior lecturer at International Business School, UTM, Malaysia. He has received his DBA degree from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. He has presented papers at various international and national conferences and published articles in peer-reviewed international journals. He has versatile career exposure. He has conducted workshops for postgraduate students regarding research methodology and PLS-SEM. His area of research interest includes organizational citizenship behaviour, psychological ownership, psychological capital, leadership, innovation, and Islamic work ethics.

Dr. Maizaitulaidawati Md Husin is a Senior Lecturer at UTM International Business School. She has received her Doctorate degree in Shariah Economics from Universiti Malaya. She has published in Journal of Islamic Marketing, Journal of Islamic Accounting and Business Research, International Business Management, Jurnal Teknologi, among others. Her main research interests lie in Islamic Banking and Finance, Takaful, Islamic Economics, Islamic Marketing and Consumer Behaviour.

Farzana Quoquab

Dr Arif Hassan is a Professor at Department of Business Administration, International Islamic University Malaysia. He has received his Doctor of Philosophy from Patna University, India. His research works, which spans over three decades, relate to behavioural issues in organisation and human resource management. He is a senior Fulbright fellow and has served several distinguished academic institutions in India before joining IIUM. He has published four books and over 50 research papers in peer reviewed journals. He has received several best paper awards during conference presentations, including the best paper for international implication award and a finalist for the Caroline-Dexter award during Academy of Management conference, 2016. Dr. Hassan has interest in case writing and case teaching methods and has served as the founding Chief-Editor of the IIUM Journal of Case Studies in Management.