

ISLAMIC LAW IN THE LCC : LOCAL EXPANSION OF SUBCLASS BP is based on the following span of class numbers, excerpt from subclass BP schedule:

BP

Islamic law (Fiqh) 1/

- | | |
|----------|---|
| (140) | Periodicals. Societies, etc |
| (141) | Collections |
| (.A1) | Several authors |
| (.A2-Z) | Individual authors |
| (142) | Dictionaries |
| | Study and teaching |
| (143.A1) | General works |
| (.A2-Z) | individual institutions for the teaching of law,A-Z |
| (144) | General works |
| (144.4) | Interpretation and construction |
| (145) | Sources, roots foundations (Usul) |
| | Koran, see BP100+ |
| | Hadith, see BP135+ |
| (146) | Idjma. Consensus |
| (147) | Kiyas.Analogy |
| (148) | Other |
| | Law school |
| (149) | Biography |
| (150) | General works |
| | By school |
| (151) | Sunnite |
| (152) | Hanafite |
| (153) | Shafiite |
| (154) | Malikite |
| (155) | Hanbalite |
| (156) | Shiite |
| (157) | Kharijite |
| | By subject matter |
| | Ceremonial and religious and law, see special
Topics, in BP |
| | Civil, criminal, and other law, see K |
| (158) | By subject ¹ |

¹ At the Library of Congress all works excepts those dealing with ceremonial and religious law are classed in K