

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION AND ORGANIZATION THEORY

ISHTIAQ JAMIL, S.M. ABDUL QUDDUS
& ROBERTS KABEBA MURIISA (EDS.)

Institutions, Civil Society and Public Policies in Developing Countries

Report No. 85 (2004)

UNIVERSITY OF BERGEN

Institutions, Civil Society and Public Policies in Developing Countries

EDITORIAL ADVISORS:

Professor Audun Offerdal, University of Bergen

Professor Harald Baldersheim, University of Oslo

Professor Paul G. Roness, University of Bergen

Associate Professor Steinar Askvik, University of Bergen

Assistant Professor Dag Øyvind Lotsberg,

Bergen University College

Published in 2004 by the Department of Administration and Organization Theory,
University of Bergen, Christiesgt.17,
N 5007, Bergen
NORWAY

Institutions, Civil Society and Public Policies in Developing Countries

Abdul Quddus

Perception and Meaning of Education: Role Perception of Schoolteacher in Bangladesh..... 1-25

Hari Paudel

The Implementation of Privatization Policy in Nepal: Is Privatization a Viable Policy Option?..... 26-49

Ishtiaq Jamil and Mahfuzul Haque

The Culture of Tadbir: The “Building Block” of Decision Making in the Civil Service of Bangladesh..... 50-91

Nasim Ahmed

Privatization of State Owned Enterprises (SOEs) in Bangladesh: A Brief Evaluation of Policy Implementation..... 92-126

Roberts Muriisa

NGOs, STATES, and DONORS: Development competitors or partners in development? Uganda’s experience..... 127-153

Xiong Zhang

Chinese State Corporatism in Institutional and Organizational Context..... 154-173