Abstract

Perhaps zakat is the only pillar of Islam which has been so widely disputed by scholars with regard to its rulings, application and above all necessity of modification. The Muslim Ummah has witnessed widespread misconceptions about some rulings and application of zakat mainly due to usage of weak and unreliable ahadith. It must be noted that zakat rulings are fixed by Shari'ah and cannot be altered or modified due to the change of time and circumstance. Therefore, any discussion, argument, suggestion and criticism can only be based on authentic sources of Shari'ah. It is imperative that the person attempting to face the challenges or to resolve controversies on zakat has to be well versed in the major Sciences of Shari'ah. These sciences are Qur'an, Hadith, Islamic Jurisprudence, Arabic language as well as their principles or sciences. The paper focuses on the following aspects: the critical areas of Ijtihad on controversial issues and how they could be resolved by using the method of combining the nususs to produce a reasonable conclusion. The paper has adopted descriptive, deductive and historical methods of analysis.
