

Premier Reference Source

Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices

Ismail Hussein Amzat

IGI Global
DISSEMINATOR OF KNOWLEDGE

Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices

Ismail Hussein Amzat
International Islamic University Malaysia, Malaysia

A volume in the Advances in Educational
Marketing, Administration, and Leadership
(AEMAL) Book Series

102315

INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA

551353

Published in the United States of America by
 IGI Global
 Information Science Reference (an imprint of IGI Global)
 701 E. Chocolate Avenue
 Hershey PA, USA 17033
 Tel: 717-533-8845
 Fax: 717-533-8661
 E-mail: cust@igi-global.com
 Web site: http://www.igi-global.com

Copyright © 2019 by IGI Global. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored or distributed in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, without written permission from the publisher. Product or company names used in this set are for identification purposes only. Inclusion of the names of the products or companies does not indicate a claim of ownership by IGI Global of the trademark or registered trademark.

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Names: Amzat, Ismail Hussein, editor.
 Title: Predictive models for school leadership and practices / Ismail Hussein Amzat, editor.
 Description: Hershey PA : Information Science Reference, [2019]
 Identifiers: LCCN 2017058888 | ISBN 9781522558583 (hardcover) | ISBN 9781522558590 (ebook)
 Subjects: LCSH: Educational leadership--Cross-cultural studies. | School management and organization--Cross-cultural studies.
 Classification: LCC LB2806 .P72 2019 | DDC 371.2/011--dc23 LC record available at <https://lccn.loc.gov/2017058888>

This book is published in the IGI Global book series Advances in Educational Marketing, Administration, and Leadership (AEMAL) (ISSN: 2326-9022; eISSN: 2326-9030)

British Cataloguing in Publication Data
 A Cataloguing in Publication record for this book is available from the British Library.

All work contributed to this book is new, previously-unpublished material. The views expressed in this book are those of the authors, but not necessarily of the publisher.

For electronic access to this publication, please contact: eresources@igi-global.com.

Copy No: 11100386530
 Initial Date: BAA 16/10/19
 Location: m

19/10/18 sm
 19/10/18 maf

LB
 2806
 P923A
 2019

Table of Contents

Preface .....	xv
Acknowledgment .....	xviii
Chapter 1
Managing Risk in School Crisis Intervention: A Call for Authentic and Inclusive Leadership.....	1
Betty Denise Monzingo, Rockdale Independent School District, USA
Mario S. Torres, Texas A&amp;M University, USA
Chapter 2
“Getting Bruised, Hurting, and Dirty” in School Leadership: Tempering the “Leprosy” of Careerism With a Sense of Calling.....	18
Peter P. Grimmert, University of British Columbia, Canada
Chapter 3
Contextually Intelligent Leadership for Improving Schools Across Different Contexts and Regions .....	43
Ramodikoe Nylon Marishane, University of Pretoria, South Africa
Sharon Thabo Mampane, University of South Africa, South Africa
Chapter 4
Instructional Leadership as a Model for Leadership in Multi-Grade Schools.....	59
Matshidiso Joyce Taole, University of South Africa, South Africa
Chapter 5
Digitally Mediated Leadership: Harnessing Tomorrow’s School-Leadership Skills Today – A Maltese Outlook.....	78
Patrick Camilleri, University of Malta, Malta
Chapter 6
A Multilevel Analysis on the Contribution of Principal’s Educational Leadership Skills on Student Achievement .....	97
Adnan Boyaci, Anadolu University, Turkey
Yakup Oz, Anadolu University, Turkey
Emel Akay, Anadolu University, Turkey

Chapter 7
Appreciative Inquiry as a Positive Approach to School's Leadership Development and Organizational Change: Croatian Case Study.....	120
Maša Magzan, University of Rijeka, Croatia
Dunja Anđić, University of Rijeka, Croatia
Petra Pejić Papak, University of Rijeka, Croatia
Chapter 8
Effective Leadership Style for Indigenous Schools in the Malaysian Context .....	143
Hariharan N. Krishnasamy, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Chapter 9
Leadership Style and School Culture as Perceived by Teachers in Malaysian Northern State Schools.....	167
Ismail Hussein Amzat, International Islamic University Malaysia, Malaysia
Habibat Abubakar Yusuf, University of Ilorin, Nigeria
Chapter 10
Embracing Successful ICT Integration Through MIC Transformational Model: Exemplary Practices of a Malaysian School Leader .....	193
Byabazaire Yusuf, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Siti Nazuar Sailin, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Abdul Halim Mohamed, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Chapter 11
Predictive Model of the Influence of Leadership Styles on Attitudes Towards Organizational Change Among Secondary School Teachers in Selangor.....	219
Yuen Fook Chan, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia
Nusrah Ahmad Mukhtar, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia
Norsidah Mohammed Noordin, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia
Chapter 12
Proposing a Leadership Model to Improve Underachieving Schools' Performance in Deprived Communities: A Case Study in South Africa .....	241
Gertruida Maria Steyn, University of South Africa, South Africa
Chapter 13
Conceptualizing a Leadership Style for Promoting the Teaching and Learning of Mathematics in Rural Secondary Schools .....	261
Zingiswa Mybert Jojo, University of South Africa, South Africa
Chapter 14
Predictive Leadership Style of Private Secondary School Principals in Nigeria.....	286
Talatu Salihu Ahmadu, Federal College of Education, Nigeria
Hafsat Lawal Kontagora, National Teachers' Institute, Nigeria

Chapter 15

The Impact of Leadership on Learning Outcomes: A Study on Effective Leadership Style for Principals in Vocational Colleges ..... 308

Malechwanzi J. Muthiani, Huazhong University of Science and Technology, China

Chapter 16

Green School Leadership: Towards an Effective Leadership Model for Achieving Sustainability in Namibian Secondary Schools ..... 328

Cornelia Ndahambelela Shimwooshili Shaimemanya, University of Namibia, Namibia

Sadrag Panduleni Shihomeka, University of Namibia, Namibia

Compilation of References ..... 342

About the Contributors ..... 396

Index ..... 402

About the Contributors

Ismail Hussein Amzat obtained his Bachelor degree In Arabic Language and Literature from Al-Azhar University, Cairo Egypt, Master degree in Education on Educational Administration from International Islamic University Malaysia and Doctoral degree in Education on Educational Management, Planning and Policy from University Malaysia. He is currently an Associate Professor at International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) and previously worked as a senior visiting lecturer of Educational Management at the Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM). He was also a visiting Assistant Professor at Sultan Qaboos University, Oman. He has published quite reasonable papers in many reputable journals indexed in Scopus and ISI on university management, school leadership, job satisfaction and decision-making. He is an editor of a book “Fast forwarding Higher Education Institutions for Global Challenges: Perspectives and Approaches” by Springer, 2016 and “Teacher Empowerment toward Professional Development & Practices: Perspectives across Borders” by Springer, 2017 and “Teacher Professional Knowledge and Development for Reflective & Inclusive Practices” by Routledge, 2017.

* * *

Nusrah Ahmad Mukhtar is a PhD Student of University Teknologi Mara (UiTM) and Teacher at SMK Saujana Utama, Selangor.

Emel Akay received her BA degree in ELT Department from Hacettepe University in 1999 and her MA degree with a Fulbright Scholarship in MA TEFL, from Bilkent University in 2002. She completed her Ph.D. in the field of Research Methods in Education and Statistics at Osmangazi University, Turkey in 2017. She has been working at Anadolu University for almost eighteen years.

Dunja Anđić works at Faculty of Teacher Education, University of Rijeka and teach courses titled Pedagogy of Sustainable development and Didactics of Subjects of Nature and Society. She deals with pedagogical research on the competences of kindergarten teachers and primary school teachers for ESD, sustainable kindergartens, values of education and education for sustainable development and interdisciplinary connectivity with sustainable behaviour and positive psychology. She wrote one textbook in co-authorship and publish numerous papers regarding ESD and teacher education, and was a part a (as researcher) several relevant projects. She is currently working as a Head of Section for Teaching Methods in the subject of teaching in the field of natural and social sciences at Faculty of Teacher Education in Rijeka.

About the Contributors

Adnan Boyacı is Associated Professor in Department of Educational Management in Anadolu University. Since 2010, he has been working in Turkish National Commission for UNESCO and head of Educational Committee and Board member for three years.

Patrick Camilleri is a senior lecturer in Digital Literacies and Pedagogies at the Department of Leader for Learning and Innovation (DELLI) within the Faculty of Education, University of Malta, Malta.. He specialises in Information Systems and associated socio-cognitive processes for development and emergence of new behaviours at the human-computer interface. His main interests lie within the construction and evaluation of models that analyse individual and group perceptions in technology inclusion and ICT implementation models in organisations.

Yuen Fook Chan is a professor in teaching and learning at the Faculty of Education, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia. Currently he is the Director of the Asian Centre for Research on University Learning and Teaching and also Chief Editor for the Asian Journal of University Education which is indexed in MyCite, DOAJ, EDL Edge, MyJournal and Google Scholar Citation.

Peter P. Grimmett is Professor and recent Head of the Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy in the Faculty of Education at the University of British Columbia (UBC). A former Associate Dean at Simon Fraser University (SFU), he also served as Director of the Institute for Studies in Teacher Education at SFU, was appointed by the BC Cabinet as the BC Deans of Education appointment to the Council of the BC College of Teachers (the professional body that governed teaching and teacher education in the province) between 2007-2010. He has recently been involved in a five-year Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) -funded $2.5 million Canada-wide study of the impact of public policy decisions on conditions of teaching and learning, completed a review of teacher education program accreditation for the province of Ontario, chaired the Academy of Finland's expert panel adjudicating the Finnish social science research grants competition, and given keynote addresses at international conferences in the USA, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Israel, Slovenia, Australia, South Korea, and South Africa. In total, he has published 53 refereed journal articles, written 11 books and 49 chapters in books, and in May 2000, he received an honorary doctorate from the University of Tampere, Finland, in recognition of his outstanding merits as a researcher and educator in the areas of professional development and teacher education. His most recent (2012) book, Teacher certification and the Professional Status of Teaching in North America: The New Battleground for Public Education locates recent developments in teacher certification in North America within a broader, international policy context characterized as hegemonic neo-liberalism wherein economic rationalism has begun to trump professional judgment.

Hafsat Kontagora is an Educational Psychologist and presently a Director of the In-service Education and Training, Centre for Strengthening Mathematics and Science Education at the National Teachers Institute. Also a Teacher Development Fellow of EDOREN(Education Data, Research and Evaluation in Nigeria) DFID funded project.

Hariharan N. Krishnasamy has taught English, Malay and History in secondary schools when he served as a teacher in rural schools in Borneo and Selangor Darul Ehsan in Malaysia. He took an active interest in the lives of the indigenous (oang asli) children in Malaysia. He has traveled to the hinterlands of Borneo as well as Peninsula Malaysia to better understand the lifestyles and worldviews of the orang asli. Their non verbal communication skills fascinated him and this led him to conduct research on their beliefs, attitudes, values, and communication styles. He has presented several papers on the orang asli of Malaysia. Currently, he is exploring the role of dance and music in the lives of the orang asli. He is also looking into educational issues in the context of their rich culture and heritage.

Maša Magzan is an assistant professor teaching at different programs and levels of study within University of Rijeka among which a graduate program course titled School Management at the Faculty of Teacher Education. She has various research interests that cut across many different fields such as pedagogy, sociology, anthropology, organizational studies and leadership. Her published works include one book as an author and more than 30 scientific and professional papers, cases and textbook chapters. The focus of her work is interdisciplinary orientation, collaborative research and systemic change while her teaching approach integrates three core practices: student choice, teacher as facilitator, and preparing for lives as responsible citizens and individuals.

Joseph M. Malechwani is a PhD Educational Economics and Management candidate at Huazhong University of Science and Technology, China. He holds a Master degree in Educational Planning from the University of Nairobi, Kenya and a Bachelor of Education Technology degree from Moi University, Kenya. At present, he is a lecturer in Coast Institute of Technology, Kenya. He is a former Head of Department at Coast Institute of Technology where he was engaged in coordinating teaching and research programmes and activities of the department. He has a wide knowledge of planning, design, monitoring and evaluation of educational programmes, his selected work experience includes teaching, supervision and examination of students, engaging in research on education-related matters and developing demand driven programmes for all levels of the education sector. In addition he has 4 articles in peer-refereed journals and 1 chapters in a book.

S. T. Mampane is an associate professor at the University of South Africa. She is involved in teaching Distance Education students and writing research around education leadership and management, and education policy and law. She has written, presented and published articles and book chapters, locally and internationally. She teaches both undergraduate and post graduate students research writing skills and has trained school leaders and managers in leadership and management skills and mentoring and coaching.

N. R. Marishane is a lecturer at the University of Pretoria in South Africa. He coordinates a Distance Education programme and teaches Contact students at the University of Pretoria research and education leadership and management, policy and law. He has written, presented and published articles and book chapters, locally and internationally. He supervises undergraduate and post graduate students and teaches research writing skills also. He has trained school leaders and managers in leadership and management skills.

Abdul Halim Mohamed is currently serving as a senior lecturer in Educational Technology Department, School of Education and Modern Language (SEML), Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM), Malaysia since 1996. He served as a secondary school teacher in a school and UUM Matriculation Centre, Kedah from 1991 – 1996. Abdul Halim served as a Secretary (2016 – 2018) of Qualitative Research Association of Malaysia (QRAM) from 2016-2018 and used to be the Vice President of Qualitative Research

About the Contributors

Association of Malaysia (QRAM) from 2009 – 2013. Abdul Halim conducted a variety of professional development programmes for Royal Police Department of Bukit Aman (PDRM), Medical Centre of University Malaya, Statistics Department, Roadworks Department, Shahpadu Holdings and many other organisations. Abdul Halim is a certified basic Neuro-linguistics Programming (NLP) trainer and a certified NVivo trainer. Regarding his educational background, he completed his PhD in ICT Training in University of East Anglia, United Kingdom in 2006. He finished his master's degree in Instructional Design and Technology from University of Iowa, Iowa City, USA in 1997 and completed his Bachelor Degree in Teaching English of Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) in 1990. He used to teach in the United Kingdom and the United States of America while doing his PhD and master's degree respectively. Abdul Halim had served as an e-learning consultant for Deanship Of E-Learning and Distance Education (DeLDE) of King Abdul Aziz University (KAU), Jeddah, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia from Feb 20014 till Feb 2015. He served as a writer for self-assessment report for UNIQUE Accreditation for KAU. He has been actively involved in conducting fundamental and applied research, providing training programmes and consultations in Malaysia, Brunei (Ministry of Internal Affairs and Ministry of Development), Bangladesh (The Prime Minister's Office and Teachers' Training Institutes) and Thailand such as in a few universities BSRU, NPRU, PSU, NPU, Takhsin University as a ESL and Qualitative researcher/trainer) and Indonesia. Abdul Halim used to be an educational consultant/coach and mentor for Multimedia Development Corporation (MDeC), Cyberjaya and Educational Technology Division, Ministry of Education in 2007 and 2009 where he conducted training to improve teachers in managing changes and ICT enculturation successfully in smart schools. He just recently published a chapter in a book entitled "Job Satisfaction: Influencing Factors, Gender Differences and Improvements Strategies" by American Nova Science Publishers. He also serves as a Captain in Civil Defense Department, Home Ministry and Internal Affairs, Malaysia.

Denise Monzingo is the Superintendent of Schools in Rockdale ISD located in Rockdale, TX. Dr. Monzingo earned her undergraduate degree in education from the University of Texas in Austin, a MA in Educational Leadership from Texas State University in San Marcos and an Ed.D. from Texas A& M University in College Station, with a research interest in school safety. She has received awards for Superintendent of the Year for Region 6, TASSP Administrator of the Year and TMSA Region 13 Teacher of the Year.

Yakup Oz is a Ph.D. candidate and research assistant in the Department of Educational Administration at Anadolu University, Eskisehir, Turkey.

Petra Pejić Papak is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Teacher Education, University of Rijeka, She is lecturing several graduate courses such as Didactics, Didactical Docimology and Education and Teaching for Leisure Time at Faculty of Teacher Education. Her previous work experience is associated with many years of working as a primary school teacher and with the active participation in the implementation of creative workshops with children as a collaborator of the „Youth Center” Rijeka and the The Centre for Gifted Children, Rijeka. She has published several scientific papers focused on teacher competences and new approaches and strategies of teaching and learning. She participated in numerous international and national scientific conferences and collaborated in several national and international projects.

Siti Nazuar Sailin is an academic and researcher in the field of Educational Technology. Her research interest and expertise are mainly in the area of teachers' technology integration, Communities of Practice, digital tools for teaching and learning, instructional design and strategies, and online learning.

Sadrag Panduleni Shihomeka (MBA, B.Ed) is a PhD candidate in the Department of Media and Communication at the School of History, Culture, and Communication, Erasmus University Rotterdam. His PhD research project focuses on citizen engagement, politics and digital media in Namibia. Additionally, Sadrag is a Lecturer in Educational Technologies in the Department of Lifelong Learning and Community Education at the University of Namibia. He served in different capacities as a lecturer, undergraduate and postgraduate research supervisor, consultant, secondary school teacher and facilitator for various workshops and trainings in Namibia. His research interests are on new media and politics; inclusive democracy and virtual spheres; educational technologies, education and politics, digital community engagement, teachers education and instructional technologies, social media and politics, ICT4D and e-educational administration, management and performance.

Cornelia Ndahambelela Shimwooshili Shaimemanya is a Fulbright Scholar and alumnus of Florida Tech. She served as UNESCO Education Specialist in 2011 and as University of Namibia Director of Postgraduate Studies 2012 to 2015. Shaimemanya is currently a Senior Lecturer of Educational Research and Education for Sustainable Development at the University of Namibia. Her areas of interest include environmental science, science education, educational research, environmental education, education for sustainable development, teacher education, and curriculum/instruction. She had been the Editor-in-Chief of Namibia Educational Research Association (NERA) Journal since 2007 and had served on the Editorial Boards of Namibia Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Journal and Journal for Studies in Humanities and Social Sciences. She is currently a Reviewer for UNISA Africanus: Journal of Development Studies.

Trudie Steyn is a Research Fellow in the Department of Educational Leadership and Management, University of South Africa. The overarching area of her scholarship has been that of professional working life of educators. Within this broad area she has focused her research on professional education contexts, particularly on the working lives of two categories of education professionals: school principals and teachers. She has published several research articles in international and national journals, chapters in books and presented papers at national and international conferences on the topics related to her focus area. In South Africa she is rated as established researcher by the National Research Foundation.

Matshidiso Joyce Taole is in the Department of Curriculum and Instructional Studies at the University of South Africa.

Mario S. Torres, Jr. is a Professor in Educational Administration at Texas A&M University, College Station. Dr. Torres earned his Ph.D. in Educational Administration from Penn State University, University Park in 2003. His research interests include school law, policy, ethics, and organizational inclusion. Dr. Torres has published in the field's premier journals including the Educational Administration Quarterly, Journal of Educational Administration, the Journal of School Leadership, and Education and Urban Society and co-authored a book with John Hoyle entitled Six Steps to Preparing Exemplary Principals and Superintendents: Leadership at its Best through Rowman and Littlefield Education Press. He has also co-edited two books – The Principal’s Legal Handbook through the Education Law Association and Legal Frontiers in Education: Complex Issues for Leaders, Policymaker and Policy Implementers via Emerald Press. He is past research fellow with the Mexican American and U.S. Latino Research Center and is currently a Co-PI for a project funded by the Kellogg Foundation evaluating organizational inclusion in urban schools.

Byabazaire Yusuf, Ph.D., is currently a senior faculty member at the School of Education and Modern Languages (SEML), College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM), Kedah, Malaysia. He completed his PhD in Instructional Technology at the University of Malaya, Malaysia in 2010. During his professional carrier, he has worked in various school settings and higher education institutions for many years. He teaches subjects including; Fundamentals of Instructional Technology, ICT in Education, Multimedia for Education and Training, Web Development for Instruction, Instructional Technology Assessment and Evaluation, and research methods at graduate level. Areas of research interest include; ICT integration in education and training, use of technology in special needs education, and library and information science. He has published both research and conceptual articles in National and International Journals and in conference proceedings. He is also the co-editor for- Fast forwarding Higher Education Institutions for Global Challenges: Perspectives and Approaches (2016).

Habibat Abubakar Yusuf, born in Ilorin Nigeria, had her bachelor and master degrees in educational management from university of Ilorin Nigeria and a PhD in Education from Universiti Utara Malaysia. She joined Universal Basic Education Commission (UBEC) in 2012 as an education quality assurance officer in 2012 and proceeded to University of Ilorin as a lecturer in the Department of Educational Management in 2014. She enjoys reading and traveling.

Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices

A successful administrator is one who applies suitable or appropriate leadership styles in various situations or contexts. It is crucial to investigate how effective administrators lead their organizations in challenging and difficult times, as well as promote the accomplishments of their organization.

Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices is an essential reference source that discusses academic administration as well as administrative effectiveness in achieving organizational goals. Featuring research on topics such as teacher collaboration, school crisis management, and ITC integration, this book is ideally designed for principals, researchers, academics, educational policymakers, and teachers seeking coverage on academic leadership and leadership models.

Topics Covered

- Green School Leadership
- Instructional Leadership
- ITC Integration
- Organizational Change
- Public Engagement
- School Crisis Management
- School Culture
- Teacher Collaboration

701 E. Chocolate Avenue
Hershey, PA 17033, USA
www.igi-global.com

