Executive Summary

The translation of specific terms from any academic field needs specialisation from both experts; the linguistics and specialisation area of the terms. The glossary of terms produced not only benefits the users in the field but more importantly the language learners who are acquiring language of specific purposes. Let it be English, Malay or Arabic. One of the area that received vast attention nowadays by educationists and learners alike is the area of Islamic banking and finance. As advances in the mobile technology are ubiquitously a part of the lives among educators and students alike these days, there is a need to utilize them for educational purposes more seriously. In fact newer development in mobile technology allows the use of hand phone, for instance, can be extended not only to communication but to also to be as a personal digital reference, such as dictionary or encyclopedia, to the user which in turn enrich his learning experiences conveniently anywhere and at anytime. Since the use of mobile technology is very much pervasive, more work should be done to know how best we might use it to support teaching and learning processes.

In view of this scenario, the current project proposes the extension of the previous project to be represented in electronic form via mobile applications (app). The present research seeks to shed some light on the workable model for using and developing this app in a more convenient way via devices such as iPhone, iPad or any Android-based smart devices. It tends to explore further the prototype development and implementations of the mobile accessibility using commonly used mobile platforms i.e. iOS and Android. It is wise to note here that the mobile app for Islamic banking and financial glossary of terms is none to be found in the market nowadays.

About Us

About Us

IBF Terms is the first trilingual mobile dictionary app (Arabic-Malay-English) which was inspired in view of its importance towards the development of IBF (Islamic Banking & Finance) industry not only in Malaysia, but in all other countries in the world at large. The purpose of this mobile app is to provide an immediate mean for IBF practitioners, academicians and students to make use of their mobile phones to explore, learn and understand IBF terms in depth, inclusive of its principles, techniques and applications. The app is expected to benefit those (both Muslims and non-Muslims) who are interested in knowing the approaches of Islam in establishing and managing banks and financial institutions.

Features

- The app stored over 700+ IBF terms (continuously expanded)
- Displaying these terms alphabetically
- Searching the terms using Arabic-Malay-

Literally: The opposite of prohibition; unqualified permission to do or not to do.

Technically in fiqh: It is a statement from the Lawgiver concerning the acts of those morally responsible, giving them a choice. For jurists permission means to authorize a person to act as he pleases within the limits of what is legal. Some said: negation of any discomfiture in acting or not acting. Thus, the permissible (Mubāh) is what is allowed to the morally responsible to do or not to do.

With regard to its source, permission is if two types:

- 1) Permission granted by the Sharf'ah, i.e., by the Lawgiver;
- 2) Personal permission, which is given by a person to consume or use his property without transferring its ownership; for instance, permission to use a car or a house or to allow someone to eat and drink.

في اللغة: إِباحةُ (الإباحةُ): ضدُّ الحَظْر. ومعناها مطلقُ الإذنِ بالفعل أو الترك.

في اصطلاح الأصوليين: خطابُ الله تعالى المتعلِّقُ بأفعالِ المكلفين على سبيلِ التخيير.

أما في اصطلاح الفقهاء: الإذنُ بإتيانِ الفعلِ حسبِ مشيئةِ الفاعلِ في حدودِ الإذن. أيضًا، نفي الحرجِ عن الفعلِ والترك؛ فالإباحةُ ما أُجيز للمكلفين فعله وتركه. وينقسم الإباحةُ حسبِ مصدرها إلى قسمين:

1. إباحةُ الشارع: ما أباحه الشرع.

2. إباحةُ من قبل العبد: تسليطُ من المالكِ على استهلاكِ عينٍ أو منفعةٍ ولا تملك فيها للعين، كإباحةِ الأكلِ والشرب، والإذنُ باستعمالِ الممتلكاتِ كسيارةٍ وبيتٍ ونحوهما.

Dari segi bahasa: Ibahah ialah kebenaran secara mutlak untuk menggunakan dan melakukan sesuatu.

Dari segi istilah fiqh: Ibahah ialah kebenaran yang diberikan oleh syarak atau pemilik barangan kepada individu untuk menikmati atau menggunakan kemudahan. Kebenaran ini bukan bertujuan untuk pemilikan tetapi hanya untuk penggunaan. Contohnya, kebenaran mengambil buah atau makanan, atau keizinan menggunakan manfaat umum seperti melalui jalan, duduk di taman atau memasuki sekolah dan hospital. Ia termasuk juga kebenaran khas untuk menggunakan milik seseorang individu seperti menaiki keretanya, dan menghuni rumahnya. Maka jumiur ulama fiqh berpendapat kebenaran manfaat jenis ini tidak boleh dikongsi dengan pihak lain.

2 Discharge

إبراء

Pengguguran Hutang (Ibraa)

Products

Category

Literally: From Bar'ah: to be free, exonerated, dissociated from.

Technically in fiqh: To free a person from his liability. With regard to its comprehensiveness, it is two types:

a-general discharge

b-special discharge.

With regard to its cause, the Hanafis divided it into withdrawal discharge (Ibrā Isqāt) and discharge of fulfillment (Ibrā Istifa').

في اللغة: إِبْرَاءُ (الإبراءُ) من البراءة، أي التنزيه والتخليصُ والمباعدةُ عن الشيء، ومزايته.
