Did you know that the history of zakat legislation in Kedah is already over 350 years old?

In 1667 A.D, a legislation was written by Dato Seri Paduka Tuan after he receives order from Sultan Dhiauddin Mukarram Shah I, Sultan of Kedah State (1662 A.D-1688 A.D) to write on the administrative law in Kedah State.

That legislation was known as the Tembera Dato' Seri Paduka Tuan 1667 A.D. In Malay terms, Tembera means law.

Under the law of Tembera Dato' Seri Paduka Tuan 1667 A.D., there is one specific clause which pertaining to the enforcement of zakat in the state of Kedah. This was mentioned under Clause 3 as:

“Barang siapa berbuat bendang atau huma, maka hendaklah kerasi suroh keluarkan zakat; saperti benar hisab-nya yang di-peroleh-nya itu, suroh keluarkan sa-puluh emas zakat-nya itu. Apa-bila tiada mahu mereka itu saperti hisab itu, maka hendak-lah kweng (penghulu) kerasi keluar zakat itu, menurut saperti hukum Allah Taala”.

(Translated by R.O Winstead : “Land owners shall pay religious tithes (zakat)”)

This historical record becomes a proof that the legislation of zakat in Kedah is aged more than 350 years old and Kedah become the first state in Malaysia to govern the administration of zakat through the official legal structure.
