

CONTRIBUTORS' PROFILE

Abdul Haseeb Ansari (Dr.) obtained his Bachelor of Science (B.Sc) from Gorakhpur University, India, Master of Laws (LLM) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from Banaras Hindu University, India. He has special interest in revenue law, environmental law, international trade law and comparative jurisprudence. He has extensively contributed on different aspects of these areas including a long experience of teaching and guiding research in these areas. He has authored several books on the above subjects and published numerous articles both in the local and international journals/reports and further, presented papers on the abovementioned areas at various international and local conferences. In June 2019, he retired as Professor from Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). (ahaseeb@iium.edu.my)

Abdul Rani Kamarudin (Dr.) is an Associate Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) and Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) from IIUM, and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from University of Exeter, England. He was admitted to the Malaysian Bar as an advocate and solicitor by the High Court of Malaya in 1990, and Syariah Lawyer of the Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur and the State of Negeri Sembilan. His area of interest includes Criminal Procedure, Law of Evidence, Evidence and Procedure of Syariah Court and Comparative Penology. He is also accredited mediator with the Malaysian Mediation Centre of the Malaysian Bar in 2011. (rani@iium.edu.my)

Abubakar Aminu Ahmad (Dr.) is a Senior Lecturer at Bayero University Kano (BUK) and Member (Judge) of the Investments and Securities Tribunal. He obtained his Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from Bayero University Kano (BUK), Master of Laws (LLM) from University of Jos (Unijos) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from BUK. He has written extensively in various areas of law that include Commercial Law, Industrial law and Islamic Law. He has published numerous articles both in the local and international journals/reports and further, presented papers on the abovementioned areas at various international and local conferences. (maiturarea@gmail.com)

Adnan Trakic (Dr.) is a Senior Lecturer at Department of Business Law and Taxation, School of Business, Monash University Malaysia. He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) and Graduate Certificate in Higher Education (GCHE) from Monash University. He has taught and researched in the fields of conventional and Islamic finance law, business law, and alternative dispute resolution. A co-author of several books, his published work extends to numerous articles, book chapters, and other contributions. (adnan.trakic@monash.edu)

Adnan Yaakob (Dato' Sri DiRaja) obtained his Bachelor of Arts (Hons) and Diploma in Education from University Malaya. In October 2010, he was conferred Honorary Doctorate degree in Education Administration by the most prestigious and oldest university in Jordan as a recognition towards his contribution to education. In 2012, he was also conferred the Honorary Doctorate in Technology Management by University Malaysia Pahang (UMP). Further, he is the first recipient of the Darjah Sri DiRaja Sultan Ahmad Shah Pahang (SDSA) which was bestowed upon him in 2010 which carries the title Dato' Sri DiRaja. A well-known politician, he is currently a member of the Pahang State Legislative Assembly representing Pelangai constituency since 1986 and has held the position as Menteri Besar (Chief Minister) of Pahang for 19 years, from 25 May 1999 to 15 May 2018.

Ainul Jaria Maidin (Dr.) is a Professor at the Civil Law Department, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She obtained her Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) and Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) from IIUM; and PhD from University of Wales, UK. She was admitted to the Malaysian Bar as an advocate and solicitor by the High Court of Malaya in 1989. She specialises in various aspects relating to policy formulation, property law, land planning and development control law, legal and organisational framework relating to aspects of law enforcement institutions, good governance, sustainable development goals and maqasid al syariah. At the national level, she is a member of the Board of Advisors of the National Institute for Land and Survey and a member of the international organisations, United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-HABITAT) and International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN). She has published extensively in local and international journals and further, presented papers on the abovementioned areas at various international and local conferences. (ainulj@iium.edu.my)

Arun Kasi (Advocate and Solicitor, Fellow of CIArb London, Adjudicator) graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) (UK) and Master of Laws (LLM) from University of Malaya. He has authored numerous articles, books, write-ups in diverse legal subjects, some on his own and others jointly with prominent jurists. The articles have been published in various local and international journals. He has regularly given talks at various bar committees, universities and public symposiums in diverse areas of law. His particular interest is in the area of arbitration, adjudication and shipping law. He is a panel arbitrator in Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC) and Thai Arbitration Centre (THAC). He is also a construction industry payment dispute adjudicator in the panel of AIAC. (arunkasi@arunkasico.com)

Ashgar Ali Ali Mohamed (Dato' Sri Dr.) is a Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) and Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) from IIUM, Master of Laws (LLM (Hons)) from the University of Auckland, New Zealand and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from the Graduate School of Management, University Putra Malaysia. He was admitted to the Malaysian Bar as an advocate and solicitor by the High Court of Malaya in 1992. His area of interest includes Employment Law, Civil Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution. He has authored several books on the above subjects and published numerous articles both in the local and international journals/reports and further, presented papers on the abovementioned areas at various international and local conferences. (ashgar@iium.edu.my)

Assaduzzaman Khan (Dr.) is as Associate Professor at Department of Law, Independent University, Bangladesh (IUB). He graduated with Bachelor of Law (LLB (Hons)) from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), Master of Laws (LLM) from Stockholm University, UK and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from University of Southampton, UK. His area of research includes International Commercial Arbitration and Investment Dispute. (adssadng@iub.edu.bd)

Barakat Adebisi Raji (Dr.) graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from University of Ilorin, B.L. from Nigerian Law School, Master of Laws (LLM) from Obafemi Awolowo University, Nigeria and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). Her areas of interest are Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), Human Rights and Gender Discrimination. She has published numerous articles both in the local and international journals/reports and further, presented papers on the abovementioned areas at various international and local conference. (babraj2007@gmail.com)

Chithra Latha Ramalingam (Dr.) graduated with a Bachelors of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from University of Wolverhampton, Master of International Business Laws (LLM (Merit)) from Staffordshire University and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from University of Malaya. Her research interest is in Human Governance that encompasses Law, Ethics and Governance. She has undertaken research in the area of Corporate Governance and Corporations Law, Employment Law, Sports Law and Cyber Media Law. She has authored books on Company Law, Elements of Law and co-authored Law and Technology Management with Open University Malaysia and is the subject moderator for Malaysian Business Law with a publishing house. Her experience in research is well compounded on the fact that she had trained a pool of MACC officers to understand the intricacies of the legal issues related to company and governance. She has also produced some peer-reviewed journal publication and presented conference papers both locally and internationally in the above areas. Prior to her current portfolio as a Senior Lecturer, she has served as a lecturer locally at various private universities and abroad in the United Kingdom. (chithlr@help.edu.my)

Farheen Baig Sardar Baig (Datin Sri Dr.) is an Associate Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kuliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She graduated with Diploma in Islamic Studies, Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. She was admitted to the Malaysian Bar as an Advocate and Solicitor by the High Court of Malaya in 1996 and her area of interest includes employment law and tort law. She has co-authored several books on employment law and published numerous articles both in the local and international journals/reports and further, presented papers on the abovementioned areas at various international and local conferences. (farheenb@iium.edu.my)

Hamid Sultan Abu Backer (Judge of Court of Appeal Malaysia, Datuk Dr.) graduated in Bachelor of Economics (BEc (Hons), Master of Laws (LLM) from the University of London and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He also holds a Post Graduate Diplomas in Islamic Banking and Finance and Syariah Law and Practice from IIUM. Yang Arif is an Honorary Fellow, Middle East Institute (MEI), National University of Singapore; an Honorary Visiting Professor of Damodaran Sanjivayya National Law University (DSNLU), Visakhapatnam, India; Adjunct Professor of IIUM and Multimedia University (MMU) and also Panel Advisor of Islamic Science University of Malaysia (USIM); a barrister and a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (London). He was a member of the Malaysian Bar Council for more than six years and has served as Chairman in various committees. He has been invited as a visiting Scholar of University of Sheffield in United Kingdom, and had spoken on Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in England at Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, London as well as City University of London; Attorney General Chambers, Sri Lanka; Chennai, Ambedkar Law University; DSNLU Visakhapatnam, etc.; Leeds University, England; 'Maison du Barreau de Paris, Paris; EBS University Wiesbaden, Germany and Hong Kong, University. He had also spoken on Arbitration Clause in Islamic Finance Facilities in Doha, Hamad Bin Khalifa University Qatar. He participated in various other activities of Universities such as examiner of PhD thesis, external examiner, Guest Speaker, etc. He has written about one thousand judgments which cover most areas of the law. He has authored books on various subjects including Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Conveyancing, Islamic Banking, International and Domestic Arbitration and on other areas of commercial law. He is also the founder of Janab Law Series where the details are at <http://www.janablegal.com/about/> . (newjanab@gmail.com)

Hanifah Haydar Ali Tajuddin is a Senior Assistant Director at the Policy and Research Unit of the Syariah Judiciary Department Malaysia. Being an officer at the Policy and Research Unit, she is involved in research relating to application of Syariah laws in Malaysia and efforts to standardise the laws, and innovations in improving service of the Syariah court. She is also tasked as a focal person for her department in preparing responses for international conventions in issues relating to Syariah laws in Malaysia. Currently, she is in her final stages of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She has obtained her Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Bachelor of Laws (Shari'ah) (LL.B(S) (Hons)) and Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) from IIUM. She has co-authored an edited book on Islamic Banking and published several articles and as well as chapters in book in both local and international journals/publisher in areas relating to Syariah laws, legal system, Islamic criminal laws, and Islamic banking and finance. (hanifah82@esyariah.gov.my)

Hanna Ambaras Khan (Dr.) is a Lecturer at Multimedia University (MMU). She graduated from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD). She was called to the Malaysian Bar in 2004 and practiced law until 2011. She has published vastly in the area of community mediation in Malaysia and conducted numerous community mediation training mediators for the Malaysian Department of National Unity and Integration. (akhan.hanna@gmail.com)

Mahyuddin Daud (Dr.) is an Assistant Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from IIUM, Master of Laws (LLM) from the Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. He has published several articles in the local and international journals/reports and further, presented papers at various international and local conferences. His area of interest includes Contract Law, Tort Law and Cyber Law. He is currently the Director of Sports Development Centre at IIUM. (mahyuddin@iium.edu.my)

Md. Zahidul Islam (Dr.) is an Assistant Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from the Eastern University, Bangladesh; and Master of Comparative Laws (MCL), and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. His principal research interest is in Human rights, Constitutional law, Media law and Film censorship law. He has researched and published in various reputed journals and presented papers at various international and national conferences. (zahidul@iium.edu.my)

Mohammad Naqib Ishan Jan (Dr.) is a Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. His areas of expertise include Public International Law, International Humanitarian Law, International Human Rights Law, International Dispute Resolution, International Commercial Arbitration, Use of Force in International Relations, Refugee Law and the Law of the United Nations. He has taught and published extensively in these specialised areas. Further, he has published a number of books and numerous articles in refereed law journals, and presented papers at various conferences. (naqib@iium.edu.my)

Mohd Akram Shair Mohamed (Dato' Sri Dr.) obtained his undergraduate and post-graduate degrees, Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Master of Laws (LLM), Master of Philosophy (MPhil), from University of London and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He is Barrister At Law, Lincoln's Inn, London and a non-practising Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court Malaya. He also holds post-graduate Diploma in Public International Law (Hague) and International Humanitarian Law (IHL) (Geneva). His areas of teaching and deep interest are Law of Evidence, Public International Law, International Humanitarian Law, Commercial Law, Sports Law and Medical Law (being a Registered Nurse of Nursing Council of England and Wales). He has published a number of research books and articles and presented research papers at various international conferences.

Mohammad Tahir Sabit Haji Mohammad (Dr.) is an Associate Professor at Civil Law Department, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)), Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. His principle area in teaching is Property laws and has researched, consulted, and published in intestate estates law, Waqf (Islamic endowments) law and its related matters. He has published a number of research books and articles and presented research papers at various national and international conferences. (tahiriiumedum@iium.edu.my)

Muhamad Hassan Ahmad (Dr.) is an Assistant Professor at Civil Law Department, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He graduated with Bachelor of Laws (LLB), Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. He has special research interest in Public International Law, Private International Law, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Comparative Law and Jurisprudence. He published a number of research articles in various local as well as international academic journals and presented several research papers at numerous local as well as international conferences. (mdhassan@iium.edu.my)

Muhammad Noor Firdaus Rosli graduated from the International Islamic University of Malaysia (IIUM) with the following qualifications: Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)); Bachelor of Laws (Shari'ah) (LLB(S) (Hons)) and Master of Comparative Laws (MCL). He is an officer of the Judicial and Legal Service, Malaysia and had held the post of Magistrate, Senior Assistant Registrar and Deputy Registrar of the Federal Court, Research Officer of the Federal Court, and Special Officer to the Chief Judge of Malaya, and to the President of the Court of Appeal. Numbers of his judgments were published in the law journals/reports and had participated in local and international law conferences.

Nurah Sabahiah Mohamed (Dr.) is an Assistant Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She graduated with Diploma in Shariah Law Practice (DSLPP), Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from IIUM, Master of Laws (LLM) from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from Universiti Malaya (UM). Her principal research interest is in Alternative Dispute Resolution. She has researched and published in various reputed journals and presented papers at various international and national conferences. (sabahiah@iium.edu.my)

Puteri Nemie Jahn Kassim (Dr.) is a Professor at the Civil Law Department, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She obtained her Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from University of Southampton, England, Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. She specialises in the area on Medical law and had not only published extensively in this area in both local and international journals but had participated in both local and international conferences. (nemie@iium.edu.my)

Seeni Mohamed Mohamed Nafees (Dr.) is a Senior Lecturer and the Proctor at South Eastern University of Sri Lanka (SEUSL). He holds a Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from University of Colombo, Sri Lanka, Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He is also a life member of Sri Lanka Bar Association. He has researched and published in various reputed journals and presented papers at various international and national conferences. (drsmmnafees@gmail.com)

Sheila Ainon Yussof (Dr.) was an Assistant Professor at the Kulliyah of Economics and Management Sciences (Finance Department), International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She holds a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from University of Buckingham, Bachelor of Social Science (Political Science) from Universiti Sains Malaysia, Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. She also holds a post-graduate Diploma in Shariah Law and Practice (DSLPP) from IIUM. She is also a member of the Malaysian Bar, admitted as an advocate and solicitor by the High Court of Malaya. (syussof@yahoo.com)

Sodiq O. Omoola (Dr.) is an Assistant Professor at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He holds Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) from Bayero University Kano and qualified as a Barrister and Solicitor of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. He also holds a Master of Comparative Law (MCL) and a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from IIUM. His research interest is mainly Alternative Dispute Resolution, e-commerce Law, ombudsman, consumer protection and Islamic finance regulation. He has published articles in refereed journals and presented research papers in several international conferences. (sodiq_omoola@iium.edu.my)

Syed Hamid Syed Jaafar Albar (Tan Sri Dato' Seri Dr.), had been a Member of Parliament from 1990 to 2013. He has held various ministerial positions, including Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (1990-1995), Minister of Defence (1995-1999), Minister of Foreign Affairs (1999-2008) and Minister of Home Affairs (2008-2009). He also served as Chairman of Land Public Transport Commission from its establishment in June 2010 until June 2017. Tan Sri is a renowned figure in the corporate sector and has held important positions in several banks and organisations such as Bumiputra Merchant Bankers Berhad, Bank Bumiputra Malaysia Berhad (BBMB) Finance, BBMB Factoring & Leasing Berhad, Bank Pembangunan Berhad, Kuala Lumpur Kepong Berhad and Utusan Melayu Berhad. He was also involved in providing professional skills training for executives in corporate bodies and organisations during his banking/corporate days. Since 2012 to present day, he is the Council Member of the Asian Peace and Reconciliation Council (APRC) and was the former Special Envoy to Myanmar, appointed by the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC). He is the founder of HUMANITI Malaysia, an NGO involved in humanitarian work in Malaysia and ASEAN, particularly in Myanmar. Currently, Tan Sri is an 'Adjunct Professor' at Asia e-University, Kuala Lumpur. He was invited as an 'Honorary Professor' at Beijing Jiaotong University, China. He is also a 'Visiting Fellow' at the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies, which is an independent centre of Oxford University, UK. He is frequently invited to deliver lectures on humanitarian issues and other areas within his expertise both locally and internationally. Tan Sri is a Barrister at Law (UK) and an Advocate & Solicitor (Malaya). He also holds Master of Human Sciences (Political Science) from IIUM and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D) from Asia e-University, Kuala Lumpur.

Tan Yeak Hui (Datuk) is qualified with a Barrister-at-Law from the Gray's Inn and Master in Conflict Management from University of South Australia. He is the former Chairman of the Industrial Court, Malaysia. Currently, he is the Co-Secretary/Treasurer of the Asia Pacific Mediation Forum (APMF) and also a member of the APMF Executive and Steering Committees for 2016-2019. Being deeply passionate in alternative dispute, resolution he has pioneered in the establishment of several centres promoting the above, namely, the Asia Pacific Mediation Centre, Association Against Parental Alienation, Restorative Justice Centre Malaysia, International Association for Non-Adversarial Justice and Industrial Justice Institution of Malaysia. (industrialjustice@hotmail.com)

William K H Lau (Datuk) obtained his Bachelor of Laws (LLB (Hons)) and Master of Laws (LLM) from the London School of Economics and Political Science, University of London. He is qualified with a Barrister-at-Law from the Inns of Court, London, Barrister of the Supreme Court of Western Australia and Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court in Sabah and Sarawak. He is accredited Mediator with LEADR, IAMA (now known as Resolution Institute) and with NMAS (National Mediators Accreditation System, Australia). He is also a Registered Adjudicator with two Australian States - Western Australia and Northern Territory. He is a panel Arbitrator/Mediator for Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC), Singapore Institute of Arbitrators (S.IAC), Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators (MIArb.), London Maritime Arbitrators Association (LMAA), and Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators, Australia (IAMA). He has been appointed in a number of dispute cases, which have involved construction, real estate, shipping and commercial disputes. He has even been the mediator in cross-border commercial disputes in Perth, Western Australia and in Cebu City, Philippines. He also participated in various other activities such as examiner of post-graduate thesis and guest speaker on ADR at various international and local conferences. (wkhlu@gmail.com)