

CONTRIBUTORS

Abdul Ghani Abu

Abdul Ghani Abu is a teacher-trainer, curriculum developer and an associate professor in TESL (Teaching as a Second Language) at the English Department of Faculty of Languages and Communication, Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris (UPSI), Perak. His research areas include learning styles and strategies, postcolonial literature, comparative literature, Malaysian literature in English and pedagogical syntax.

Abdul Rashid Mohamed

Abdul Rashid Mohamed is currently a professor of TESOL at the School of Educational Studies, Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM). He is a consultant to the Malaysian Ministry of Education as well as the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Maldives and also advises the Sabah Foundation and Villa College of the Maldives. He is the chief editor of the Asia Pacific Journal of Educators and Education and the Malaysian Education Deans' Council Journal. One of his major research activities is the InSPIRE Project on low performing primary schools in Sabah. Professor Dato' Dr. Abdul Rashid holds a PhD in TESOL from the East Anglia University, United Kingdom. He has vast experience in publishing in local and international journals such as 3L: Language, Linguistics and Literature, Pertanika Journal of Social Sciences & Humanities, Contemporary Issues in Education Research and The Asia-Pacific Education Researcher.

Abdul Latiff Ahmad

Abdul Latiff Ahmad currently holds the position of Deputy Director of UKM Global – The International Relations Centre, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM). He is also a senior lecturer at the Centre of Communication and Digital Society, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities. He obtained his PhD in Communication Studies from the University of Queensland, Australia in 2013. Dr. Abdul Latiff's research interest is intercultural communication.

He was the principle researcher for various researches relating to international student experience, cultural adaptation and intercultural communication. He has headed grants provided by the Ministry of Higher Education Malaysia, Ministry of Sports and Youth Malaysia, UKM and Central Bank Malaysia. He is also active in rediscovering teaching and learning. He has developed two Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) for the Intercultural Communication and Effective Communication SEA Games Volunteer Training Module courses.

Adelina Asmawi

Adelina Asmawi is the Head of Department of Language and Literacy Education, Faculty of Education, Universiti Malaya (UM). She obtained her PhD from University of Melbourne, Australia. She was a Deputy Dean of Undergraduate Studies and Quality Manager from 2014 to 2017. Her areas of expertise are professional development of teachers, TESL and instructional technology. She was awarded Best in Teaching at the University of Malaya Excellence Award (2017), as well as a Gold and Special Award for Student Support for her research and e-book, Thesis Easy (2018). She is the author of The Art of Reflective Thinking (2016) and The Art of Creative Research (2017), and chief editor of the book, Language Education for a World on the Move (2019). She is currently working on developing resources for improving English language competencies among urban poor students through her research, the PEARL project.

Afeez Nawfal Mohd Isa

Afeez Nawfal Mohd Isa is a senior lecturer at the School of Communication and Media, Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang. He served as a lecturer at the Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) from 2009 to 2013 before joining Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang in 2014. He just completed his PhD in Communication and Media Studies in UUM. His primary research interest is on film and media studies.

Ahmad Zamri Khairani

Ahmad Zamri Khairani is a senior lecturer at the School of Educational Studies, USM, Penang. He completed his study and conferred the BA (Hons.) in Education (Mathematics and History) and MEd (Psychometric and Educational Testing) from the USM and PhD in Psychometric and Educational Testing from the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). Dr. Ahmad Zamri has 10 years of teaching experience at secondary schools as a mathematics teacher, prior to joining USM in 2010. He has published various articles in both local and international journals such as the Pertanika Journal of Social Sciences and the Journal of Educational Measurement.

Azhan Zaki Silim

Azhan Zaki Silim is a lecturer at the Kuala Langat Community College. He holds a Bachelor Degree in Civil and Structural Engineering from UKM in 2000. He commenced his service as an officer of educational services at the Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah Polytechnic on 2002, and was in service until 2008. He began his service with Kuala Langat Community College on 2009, to date. He is a Certified Referee/National Arbitre Level 1 and Certified Sports Coaching Level 1 for pétanque sport under the Pétanque Federation of Malaysia. He has served in several international and national pétanque tournaments, namely the Sea Games Kuala Lumpur 2017, Malaysia MAKSAT Tournament 2017, National PSKPPM Sports Festival 2015, Higher Education Institution Sports Tournament (SUKIPT) in 2014 and 2016, the Higher Education Institution Pétanque Tournament for five consecutive years (2013–2017) and numerous other championships.

Aziah Thalaha

Aziah Thalaha is an education officer of higher learning in the field of culinary at the Sungai Petani Community College. She holds a Bachelor Degree in Culinary Arts Management with honours (2010) and a Bachelor Degree in Architectural Science (2006), both from Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) Shah Alam. She has been attached to Sungai Petani Community College since 2012 to date. In addition to being a lecturer and a researcher, she is active in both the outdoor activities and sports, either at departmental or external level. She is a Certified Referee/National Arbitre Level III of the pétanque sport under Pétanque Federation of Malaysia. She served in several national pétanque tournaments, namely the Higher Education Institution Pétanque Tournament for three consecutive years (2015 to 2017) and pétanque tournament at departmental level (2013 to 2017).

Azizi Bahauddin

Azizi Bahauddin was trained as an architect and interior designer before joining USM as an interior design lecturer. As an expert specialising in exhibition design and interior design, Professor Dr. Azizi's primary area of research has focused on the relationships between culture concentrating on human senses and design. Many of his research topics combine culture and fine art with architectural spaces.

Cheah Wen Sing

Cheah Wen Sing is currently studying Master of Education at the Wawasan Open University, Penang. She obtained her degree in Marketing in 2008 from the Hong Kong Polytechnic University. Before embarking on her master education, she was a bank officer at the Affin Bank Berhad and a teacher at the Department of Humanities, Tenby International School. She has also recently served as a research assistant at the Wawasan Open University, Penang.

Debbita Tan Ai Lin

Debbita Tan Ai Lin serves as a senior lecturer at the School of Languages, Literacies and Translation, USM. She is keen on interdisciplinary research and her areas of interest include language acquisition, reading and media-based interventions, lexical development, educational technology and more recently, the relationship between psychological conditions and language learning. Her publications can be accessed at https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Debbita_Tan/publications.

Eric Shaun Seaton

Eric Shaun Seaton completed his BSc (Hons.) in Communication and Public Relations at the Northumbria University, United Kingdom and currently working as a lecturer at the Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang. His research interest includes race, ethnicity and culture studies.

Fadzilah Amzah

Fadzilah Amzah is a senior lecturer at the School of Educational Studies, USM, Penang. She completed her study and conferred the BA (Hons.) in Education (Malay Literature) and MA (Literature) from the USM and PhD in Malay Literature Teaching Method from the UM. Dr. Fadzilah Amzah has 11 years of teaching experience at the School of Educational Studies, USM. She has published books and various articles as chapter in book in various local publications. Her latest books were Sfera Keindahan dalam Cerita Penglipur Lara (2016) and Kemahiran Literasi Asas Kanak-kanak (2017), both published by Dewan Bahasa dan Pustaka.

Gabriel Gim Chien Wei

Gabriel Gim Chien Wei is currently serving as a lecturer at the School of Business and Management of Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang. He obtained his PhD in Organisational Behaviour and Development from the USM in 2016. He also has a Master of Business Administration from the Wawasan Open University, Penang and a Bachelor of Science in Applied Accounting (First Class Honours) from the Oxford Brookes University, United Kingdom. He is also a Fellow Member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants. He has experienced teaching at Wawasan Open University, INTI International College Penang and MSU College. Additionally, he has gained industrial experience working at Moores Rowland, Ernst & Young, AMD and Spansion. His research interests include organisational justice, creativity, resilience and commitment at the workplace.

Glenda Crosling

Glenda Crosling is the Head of the Centre for Educational Research (CHER) at the Sunway University, Selangor and previously, the Dean of Academic Enhancement. She was inaugural Director of Education Quality and Innovation at Monash University Malaysia, leading the campus in gaining self-accreditation status and developing the campus programme self-accreditation system. Professor Glenda is on the Australian government Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) register, the Oman Academic Accreditation Authority external expert register, and reviewer panel for the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA). She has been chair and a member of MQA Expert Panels in Malaysia, developing national guidelines for educational quality matters. Glenda was also for a number of years until 2017 Executive Committee member for the Malaysian Australian Business Council, and Chair of the Education and Training Sub Committee.

Professor Glenda has wide international experience in higher education development. Research and publications underpin Glenda's practical work, addressing issues of educational enhancement, diverse student cohorts, and policy and curriculum development. Books and chapters she has authored and edited are used in universities worldwide, and her articles are published in key academic journals. She is a member of a number of international editorial boards, regularly reviews articles for top level journals, and has been invited keynote and plenary speaker at international conferences. Glenda has been visiting academic in universities in China, Thailand, Hong Kong and Singapore.

Haji Abd Latif Ahmad

Haji Abd Latif Ahmad holds the position of the Main Lecturer (DH54) at the General Studies Unit. He has been in service with Sungai Petani Community College since 2016 to date. He earned his Advanced Diploma in Statistics (equivalent to a Bachelor Degree [Hons.] Science [Statistics]) in the field of statistics from the UiTM and the Master of Principalship from the UM, Malaysia and a Doctorate Degree in Education from the University of Selangor. In addition to being an educator and a researcher, he also serves as a research paper panel in conjunction with the Northern Territory Community College Research Seminar 2016 (SPEKKU '16) and 2017 (SPEKKU '17). Currently, he is serving as the Chairman of Research and Innovation Coordinator for Northern Territory Community College and the Chief Coordinator of Research and Innovation Sungai Petani Community College effective from 2017.

Hamzah Md Omar

Hamzah Md Omar was an associate professor at the School of Education in Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) for almost 20 years. He obtained his doctorate (PhD in Education) from the UPSI, Perak. Before joining UMS, he was a dedicated teacher, serving in all education levels from primary until PhD. His areas of specialisation are TESL and English linguistic.

Hasni Shamsuddin

Hasni Shamsuddin has 22 years of teaching experience. She holds a BA (Hons.) in Education (Mathematics and Geography) and MA (Psychometric and Educational Testing), both from the USM. Currently she is a full-time PhD student in Psychometric and Educational Testing at the USM.

Heran Niruba Gunasekaran

Heran Niruba Gunasekaran is a lecturer and a programme head of Bachelor of Communication (New Media) at the Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang. Her research interest includes communication and journalism, media convergence and leadership communication.

Lee Yin Lan

Lee Yin Lan is a lecturer at the School of Business, Law, Communication and Accounting, INTI International College Kuala Lumpur. She obtained her bachelor's degree in Applied Science (Mathematics and Economics) in 2014 and master's degree (Master of Economics Management) in 2016 from the USM. Before joining INTI International College Kuala Lumpur in 2018, she was a lecturer at the Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang. Her areas of specialisation are microeconomic theory, economic growth and development, economic management, ageing and decision choice behaviour. She has taught courses on these and other subjects at all levels. Her current research looks at the employment after retirement.

Manjet Kaur Mehar Singh

Manjet Kaur Mehar Singh is the Deputy Dean of Research, Postgraduate and Networking at the School of Languages, Literacies and Translation, USM. Her areas of specialisations are wide-ranging include academic literacies research in higher education, language and society, multiculturalism, and educational technology. Being an active author in the field of language education and applied linguistic, her publications are wide-ranging in the national and international journals. Her publications can be accessed at https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Manjet_Kaur.

Malini Ganapathy

Malini Ganapathy is a senior lecturer at the School of Languages, Literacies and Translation, USM, Penang. Her niche areas in research include English language teaching, writing and literacy. She has published widely on her area of research in various international and national books and journals. Her publications can be accessed at https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Malini_Ganapathy.

Mohd Zainul Fithri Othman

Mohd Zainul Fithri Othman joined Puncak Niaga Sdn. Bhd. as an Executive Director, Strategic Resource and Public Relations Division (SR&PRD) on 2014. He is currently an Executive Director, SR&PRD of Puncak Niaga Sdn. Bhd. He holds a BSc in Political Science and International Relations from the Oregon State University, United States of America in 1988 and a MA in International Relations (Security and International Political Economy) from the University of Hull, United Kingdom in 1990. He also holds a PhD in Global Political Economy from the University of Sheffield, United Kingdom in 1994.

Professor Dato' Dr. Mohd Zainul Fithri started his profession as a lecturer at the USM in 1994. He served as the Director of Management Studies at the International Medical University (IMU) in 2000. In the same year, he was attached to Institut Kajian Pembangunan Bangsa as the CEO and as an associate professor of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Universiti Tun Abdul Razak. He was appointed as Vice President/Deputy Vice Chancellor of Industrial Linkages and Students Career Development in 2003, a position he held before he moved to Puncak Niaga Sdn. Bhd. He was also appointed as the Dean at Centre of Flexible Learning, and simultaneously, a Director of Akademi Kaunseling Komuniti Malaysia (AKKMA) in 2006. He was the Chairman of the International Society of Business Administration Centre Malaysia, and was also the Political Secretary to the Minister in the Prime Minister's Department from 2008 until 2009.

Munir Shuib

Munir Shuib serves at the National Higher Education Research Institute (IPPTN), USM. His major studies and publications include topics on graduate employability skills, internationalisation, needs analysis and educational technology. He is especially interested in language learning innovation and has developed a smartphone application for university English language learners. He is also a member of ASIATEFL, the International Association of Scholarly Publishers, Editors and Reviewers and the Global Higher Education Network (GHEN). He received his MA and PhD in Applied Linguistics from the University of Sheffield, United Kingdom and Graduate Certificate in Tertiary Education Management from the University of Melbourne, Australia.

Nasir Yusoff

Nasir Yusoff is a senior lecturer at the Department of Neurosciences, School of Medical Sciences, USM, Kubang Kerian, Kelantan. He was awarded a PhD with specialisation in health psychology and behaviour in 2009 from the UM. In 2012, he pursued the postdoctoral study at the University of Chicago, United States of America. Currently, he involves with research in an area of social and cultural neuroscience. A lot of his academic papers have been published in national and international journal of psychology, humanity and medical science.

Nor Shafrin Ahmad

Nor Shafrin Ahmad is an associate professor in Counselling Psychology at the School of Educational Studies, USM. She is specialising on crisis and trauma counselling, child and adolescent counselling, counsellor education and mental health. In 2011, she developed Adolescent Anger Inventory, an instrument that helps identifying types of anger among adolescents. She published several books including Managing Counselling Services Record (2006 and 2011 – revised), Victims of Sexual Abuse (2012) and Anger Management for Adolescents (2018). Book entitled Practical Application of Counselling Theory and Psychotherapy (2013) won the 2014 National Book Award, best general book in counselling and psychotherapy category and USM's Anugerah Sanggar Sanjung 2015 award in book publication category. She also actively contributes chapters in several education-related books, and writes articles for local and international journals. She is a registered and licensed counsellor by Board of Counsellor, Malaysia.

Nurul Nazira Hamzah

Nurul Nazira Hamzah is a Language Teacher at the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) for 7 years. She obtained her masters in 2015 from USM in the field of TESOL. Before joining the university, she served as a teacher at SMK

Bugaya, Semporna and was an English lecturer at the Cosmopoint College, Kota Kinabalu, Sabah. Her areas of specialisation include TESL and Oral Communication.

Pearly Lim Pei Li

Pearly Lim Pei Li is a PhD candidate at the USM. She received her undergraduate in architecture and masters of philosophy degree specialising in architecture at the Universiti Teknologi Malaysia. Her specific interest is in the relationship between early childhood education and the physical environment of these establishments. Currently she is working on projects addressing the relationship between context appropriateness of preschool environment.

Prakash Velloo

Prakash Velloo is the Dean of School of Languages and Translation at Han Chiang University College of Communication and holds a BA of Education (Hons.) (English and Mathematics) and master's degree in Applied Linguistics from the USM. He is also currently pursuing his PhD in Higher Education. During his 23 years' experience, he has been involved in the manufacturing industry and education. He is also a certified trainer and sought after instructor in English Language and Communication modules. He has also coordinated the language department at various higher learning institutions and lectured various courses related to English language. His research interest is in English for specific purposes and English language teaching methodology. He is also active in doing editing work and offers translation services to various bodies and individuals at all levels.

Quah Wei Boon

Quah Wei Boon is an education officer of higher learning in the field of hotel operation. He has been in service with Sungai Petani Community College since 2012 until present. He holds a Bachelor Degree in Business (Hotel Management) with honours and a Master in Business (Hotel Management) from the UMS. He serves as a sports officer at the Sungai Petani Community College since 2013 until present. He attended the Level 1 Sports Science Course under National Coaching Certification Scheme (SPKK), Malaysia National Sports Council. In addition, he also holds the Level 1 National Coaching Licensing Scheme License C SPKK (pétanque) and National Arbitre Level 2 (pétanque). In 2016 and 2017, he served as a Certified Referee/Arbitre in the Higher Education Institution pétanque tournament. He is involved in coaching, managing and leading the Sungai Petani Community College to several Higher Education Institution Pétanque Tournament and achieving some excellent results.

Rafidah Abd Karim

Rafidah Abd Karim is a senior lecturer at the Academy of Language Studies, UiTM Tapah, Perak. Her research interests include Computer-Assisted Language Learning (CALL), Mobile-Assisted Language Learning (MALL), language teaching and learning, instructional design and technology, and e-learning. Her areas of specialisation are mobile learning, design thinking, and innovation and mind mapping. Her articles have appeared in national and international journals and proceedings and these include “Theoretical Perspectives and Practices of Mobile-Assisted Language Learning and Mind Mapping in the Teaching of Writing in ESL Classrooms” and “Technology-Assisted Mind Mapping Technique in Writing Classrooms: An Innovative Approach”.

Shukran Abdul Rahman

Shukran Abdul Rahman is an associate professor at the Department of Psychology, IIUM. He is currently the Head, Department of Psychology at IIUM, and Coordinator for Graduateness Research Unit, IIUM. He also serves as Associate Research Fellow at the IPPTN. Shukran holds Doctor of Occupational Psychology Degree from Murdoch University, Australia. He specialises in occupational psychology, and lectures in personnel psychology, psychometrics, organisational change and development, career development, and issues in personnel and organisational psychology. His research areas include career development, organisation development, organisational behaviour, changes and development in higher education, employability and graduateness of students in higher learning institutions.

Siok Sin Chan

Siok Sin Chan is currently a primary school teacher at the SRJK(C) Bandar Springhill, Negeri Sembilan. She has a great passion in educating our young and future generation with effective way focusing on impactful learning. In her school, she uses different way of teaching in enhancing student learning experience. Community and social well-being are always her overarching vision in life. Following that, research projects related to students are always part of her research interests.

Siok Yee Chan

Siok Yee Chan is currently a senior lecturer at the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, USM. In teaching and learning, she is one of the initiators who embraces innovative idea of flipped classroom, e-learning platform and online tools in her teaching with award winning achievement and most importantly, positive students' feedbacks. She has received a number of honours including, Special Creativity Award and gold medal in National Pharmacy Competition 2018, silver and bronze medals in the International Invention, Innovation and Design on e-Learning Competition 2017, the best pharmacy student, the best student in the subject of pharmaceutical chemistry at the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, USM and Gold Medal Award from the Malaysia Pharmacy Society in 2008.

Theam Foo Ng

Theam Foo Ng received the BSc (Hons.) in Mathematics (2002) and MSc in Statistics (2006), both from the USM. He obtained his PhD from the University of New South Wales, Australia in 2012. He is currently a senior lecturer at the Centre for Global Sustainability Studies, USM. His research interests include machine learning, pattern recognition, computational intelligence, image processing, disaster risk management, educational for sustainable development, and e-learning. He is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE) since 2011.

Yat Kuan Lam

Yat Kuan Lam is a lecturer at the School of Communication, Han Chiang University College of Communication, Penang. She obtained a Bachelor of Communication from the Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman, Perak between 2009 to 2011. She has also completed master's degree in communication from the USM, Penang between 2013 to 2015. She is currently planning to study on gender and media issues, particularly in how media portray on women in Malaysian society. Her research interests include gender, media and cultural studies, creative industries and humanities.

Teo Yong Chang

Teo Yong Chang (Matthew) is a lecturer at the School of Occupational Therapy, Perdana University, Selangor. He obtained a Degree in Occupational Therapy with honours from the UKM in 2012 and had attained a Master in Neuroscience from the USM in 2014. After obtaining his masters's degree, he practiced as an occupational therapist at Loh Guan Lye Hospital, Penang until early 2016 before accepting the current job at the Perdana University as a lecturer in occupational therapy.

He is also the assistant secretary of Malaysian Healthy Ageing Society (MHAS) and an active member of Malaysian Occupational Therapist Association (MOTA). As a new member in Perdana University School of Occupational Therapy (PUScOT), he envisions to contribute pedagogical occupational therapy researches in the future and to promote occupational therapy profession in Malaysia.

Zokhri Idris

Zokhri Idris has a PhD in Peace and Security from the Graduate School of International Studies, Korea University. He is attached to Puncak Niaga Holding Berhad as an Assistant Manager of the Strategic Resource and Public Relations Division, Puncak Niaga Holding Berhad.