Dear Assoc. Prof. Puteri Shireen Binti Jahn Kassim,

The 2020 International Conference on Civil, Architecture and Pollution Control (ICCAPC 2020) was scheduled to be held on March 6-8, 2020 in Xi'an, China, for which you were one of the speakers. To avoid health risks caused by the outbreak of the epidemic, the conference will be held online on March 6.

On behalf of Organizing Committee, we (AEIC Academic Exchange Information Centre) cordially invite you, Assoc. Prof. Puteri Shireen Binti Jahn Kassim to attend ICCAPC 2020 and deliver a keynote speech titled with “City Form, The Pedestrian Realm and Zero Pollution: Engaging Urban Design in Worldwide Pathways of Low Carbon Sustainability”. And we believe that your support will be highly important to the success of this conference.

ICCAPC 2020 is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of civil, architecture engineering and pollution control to a common forum. We are looking forward to your participation.

If more information is required, please contact Mr. Dongfang Yang, professor of Guizhou Minzu University, China and chairman of AEIC at 86-13922150148 (Mobile).
