The Islamic Quarterly is published since 1954 by the Islamic Cultural Centre, London.

Many leading Muslim and non-Muslim Scholars from universities and institutions across the globe contribute regularly on matters relating to Islamic Law, Culture and Arts. The journal at the same time focuses on the academic and intellectual research in the field of Islamic history and all other aspects of Islamic thought & civilization. The Islamic Quarterly has a world-wide distribution mostly to universities, libraries and academic institutions. Individual subscribers are also welcomed.

Over the years the IQ journal has proved invaluable towards the understanding of Islam and Muslim culture. The journal is available through annual subscription only. Back issues are also available.
