Dear Dr. Mohd Shukri Baba,

Subject: Invitation to Give an Oral Presentation at the SEAOHUN International Conference

With support of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), Southeast Asia One Health University Network (SEAOHUN) in collaboration with Hanoi Medical University and the One Health Workforce (OHW) is pleased to organize the SEAOHUN 2018 International Conference with the theme on “One Health Academic Challenges: Preparing today’s workforce to combat tomorrow’s infectious diseases” on 12-15 November 2018, Hanoi Medical University, Hanoi, Vietnam.

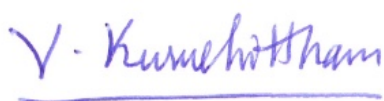

The conference aims to provide opportunities for all distinguished guests and participants to exchange the latest information, ideas, field practices and achievements in One Health approaches on the five subthemes: 1) One Health policy, 2) One Health education and training, 3) Antimicrobial Resistance, 4) Infectious/Zoonotic diseases, and 5) Food safety. Additionally, the conference enables One Health professionals to showcase their work at the regional and country levels to relevant stakeholders and serves as a platform for academia, development agencies, and donors to identify opportunities for collaboration to strengthen One Health workforce.
