

Dear TENGKU SITI AISHA BINTI TENGKU AZZMAN (last name not available),

Thank you for submitting the abstract of your paper, “Do we really have to talk about that? Avoiding COVID-19 topics with close contacts” After a rigorous blind peer review, we are pleased to inform you that your abstract has been approved for presentation. You may now proceed in finalizing your paper for presentation at the 28th AMIC Annual Conference. This will be a virtual conference to be held on 20 and 27 November 2021 and 04 December 2021.

Submission Details

Submission ID: 270

Title: “Do we really have to talk about that?” Avoiding COVID-19 topic with close contacts

Authors: Assistant Professor Tengku Siti Aisha Tengku Mohd Azzman Shariffadeen, Associate Professor Aini Maznina A. Manaf, Assistant Professor Sharifah Sofiah Syed Zainuddin

Your abstract will be included in the 28th AMIC Annual Conference Book of Abstracts to be published online/offline by AMIC with its own International Standard Serial Number (ISSN). You are allowed to make minor changes in your approved abstract. There may be some reviewer comments on your portal. Please send us your final abstract (350 words or less) on or before 31 October 2021.

You may now proceed in writing/finalizing your paper. Please submit the following to the AMIC Secretariat on or before 12 November 2021:

1. A completed Author Declaration Form (template attached)
2. Full Paper

Submit these documents to conference2021@amic.asia.

Highlights of your paper shall be presented in a breakout session during the conference. Please note that only registered conference participants will be allowed to present. You may now register at <https://2021conference.amic.asia/registration-page/>.

Guidelines for speakers and actual presentation schedules shall also be emailed to you upon your submission of the full paper.

Please stay safe and healthy. Thank you very much.

Ramon R. Tuazon
Secretary General