Fwd: Reminder: WAPOR 74th Annual Conference: Intent to Participate

SYED ARABI BIN SYED ABDULLAH IDID Idid <sarabidid@iium.edu.my>   Fri, Aug 27, 2021 at 10:21 AM
To: Tini Wakichan <tiniwakichan@gmail.com>

This letter was placed in SPAM, until rectified today. Please reply say we will accept.

---------- Forwarded message ---------
From: Renae Reis <renae@wapor.org>
Date: Wed, Aug 25, 2021 at 8:43 PM
Subject: Reminder: WAPOR 74th Annual Conference: Intent to Participate
To: <sarabidid@iium.edu.my>

Dear Syed Arabi,
Recently we informed you that your submission, 490: Leadership traits in time of crisis: A study on the Malaysian prime minister facing the pandemic, has been ACCEPTED for presentation at our 74th Annual Conference being held virtually during the dates of Tuesday, November 2 to Saturday, November 6, 2021. Please read this entire email for information regarding your submission and the conference.

As the primary presenter, it is your responsibility to communicate all information regarding the annual conference to your co-authors. Thank you for keeping everyone informed as we prepare for the conference.

Please note: This is a reminder that we need you to confirm your intent to participate by Sunday, September 5, 2021, so that we know to include your presentation as part of the conference program. Please follow these steps:

1) Visit: https://wapor.secure-platform.com/a/organizations/main/submissions/NeedsAttention
2) Log in if prompted to do so
3) Click "Open" on the Application in the "Needs Attention" section
4) Click to confirm your participation
5) Click "Save and Finalize"

To make the conference a success, we would ask that your acceptance to present also includes your intent to participate as BOTH presenter and audience member at the conference.

Curious about the format and/or timing of the conference? Visit our website to get more information: https://wapor.org/events/annual-conference/current-conference/

IMPORTANT PRESENTATION INFORMATION:

ID: 490

Title: Leadership traits in time of crisis: A study on the Malaysian prime minister facing the pandemic

---

SESSION INFORMATION

Sessions will be finalized following the response date of September 5, 2021. Parallel sessions of 60 minutes will be scheduled for the dates of November 3-5, 2021, 2 – 6 pm CEST/8 am – 12 pm EDT.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

Please go to the RSVP Link to ACCEPT or DECLINE this invitation to present your submission. Reply online by September 5, 2021 to secure your placement in the conference program.

Presentation guidelines are available on the WAPOR website: https://wapor.org/events/annual-conference/current-conference/presentation-guidelines-and-information/

PAPER AWARD OPPORTUNITIES:

Please consider submitting your paper for consideration for one of the following paper prizes if you are eligible:

•   The Elizabeth Nelson Prize is given to the best conference paper written and presented by the author(s) from a society in transition (tiers B or C).

•   The Naomi C. Turner Prize honors the best conference paper written and presented by a student(s).

Submission: Authors should submit their completed paper for the awards above electronically using MS-Word or PDF format, by 11:59 p.m. (EDT) on Friday, October 8, 2021 to renae@wapor.org. Entries should be approximately 15 to 25 pages in length and may have multiple authors. All authors on an entry must meet the eligibility requirements for the award. Please include each author's name, telephone number and email address. WAPOR reserves the right to not award prizes.

Other awards to be given at the conference award session (November 4, 2021, 6-7 pm CEST) are as follows: