[First Notice] Information on the 2nd World Dysphagia Summit (WDS 2021)

We have decided to change the conference format to the hybrid style due to COVID-19 pandemic. You can participate the conference on-site & on-line. Although the style is changed, the 3-day program remains the same as original which will surely satisfy your interests. All sessions, except a few sessions, are available on live streaming and on demand. We hope that this hybrid format enables all the participants to share the latest information on dysphagia through lively discussions.

Period	Holding Method
Thursday, August 19	Pre-congress workshop Webcast. (for registered participants only)
Friday, August 20 – Saturday, August 21	On-site (including exhibitions) and live streaming of designated and free paper presentations.*
Sunday, August 22	live streaming of designated and free paper presentations.*

*Designated abstracts and general oral presentations except for some seminars. Poster abstracts can only be presented on the web and viewed by the audience. (Available from August 19 to September 14)

Our JSDR/WDS organizing team working hard to make this conference successful and looking forward to your participation.

Yours sincerely,

May 21, 2021
