THE PROBLEMS OF THE ILLEGITIMATE CHILD
(WALAD AL-ZINÄ) FOUNDLING (LAQĪT)
IN THE SUNNI SCHOOLS OF LAW

MOHAMAD SUJIMON

IIUM Press
THE PROBLEMS OF THE ILLEGITIMATE CHILD (Walad Zina) AND FOUNDLING (Laqīt) IN THE SUNNĪ SCHOOLS OF LAW

Mohamad Sujimon
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements xi

Preface xiii

Preamble xvii
The Importance of Genealogical Relationship (Nasab)
in the Sunni Schools of Law

CHAPTER ONE
Child’s Legitimacy: Al-Walad li al-firâsh 1
I. Evidence (al-Bayyinah) 5
II. Doubtful Intercourse (Waf’ shubkah) 10

CHAPTER TWO
Illegitimacy (Nasab Ghayr Shar’î) 19
I. The First Category – Zinâ 19
II. The Second Category – The Offspring Arising within a Legitimate Union: 19
(1) Imprecation (Li’ân) 20
(2) The Period of Gestation 24
(3) Inability to Beget 25
III. The Third Category – Deliberate Unlawful Marriage 26
The Rights of the Illegitimate Child 26
I. Legal Status of the Illegitimate Child (Walad zinâ) 26
(1) Genealogical Relationship (Nasab) of the
Illegitimate Child (Walad zinâ) 26
(2) Maintenance and Care of the Illegitimate
Child (Walad Zinâ) 27
(3) Blood-wit for the Illegitimate Child (Walad zinâ) 33
(4) Inheritance of the Illegitimate Child (Walad zinâ) 34
(5) Marriage of the Illegitimate Child (Walad zinâ) 34
II. Moral Status of the Illegitimate Child (Walad Zinā) 35
   (1) The Ability of the Illegitimate Child to Lead
       the Prayers (Imāmat al-Salāh) 36
   (2) The Ability of the Illegitimate Child to Give
       Testimony (Shahādah) 39
   (3) Funeral Prayers (Ṣalāt al-Janāzah) of the Illegitimate Child (Walad zinā) 39

CHAPTER THREE
Treatment of Foundlings (Laqīṭ) 47
I. Laqīṭ Defined 47
II. The Legal Assumption of the Freedom of the Foundling (Laqīṭ) 48
III. Reasons for Abandoning Foundlings (Laqīṭ) 48
IV. The Rules (Ḥukm) Governing the Finding of Foundling (Laqīṭ) 49
V. The Religious Status of the Foundling (Laqīṭ) 52
VI. Problem about the Legitimacy of the Foundling (Laqīṭ) 53
VII. Maintenance and Upbringing of the Foundling (Laqīṭ) 53
       (1) Maintenance of the Foundling with Property or Money 54
       (2) Maintenance of the Foundling without
           Property or Money 57
VIII. The Application of the Institution of the Walā' al-Mu'ākhā or Walā' al-Muwālah to the Foundling (Laqīṭ) 59

CHAPTER FOUR
I. Prohibition of Pre-Islamic Adoption 77
II. How Adoption Took Place in Pre-Islamic Times 83
III. The Genealogical Relationship (Nasab) of the Foundling (Laqīṭ) 85
IV. Istilhāq or Iqrār bi al-nasab as an Islamic Alternative 89
V. The Role of Acknowledgement of Paternity
   (Istilhāq) in Dealing with the Illegitimate Child
   (Walad zinā) and Foundling (Laqīṭ) 116
       (1) The Acknowledgement of Paternity (Istilhāq)
           Made by One Claimant 117
(2) The Acknowledgement of Paternity (Istilhāq)
   Made by a Woman 120
(3) The Acknowledgement of Paternity (Istilhāq)
   Made by Two Claimants 123
VI. Physiognomy (al-Qiyāfah) as a Means of Determining Disputes over Paternity 131
VII. Drawing Lots (al-Qur'ah) 136

CHAPTER FIVE
- Brief Background on Family Law in Malaysia 147
- Provisions for the Illegitimate Child (Walad zinā) and Foundling (Laqīṭ) in Brunei Darussalam 170
- Conclusions 176

Bibliography 185

Index 199